17 Assistant United States Attorney, counsel for the United States of America, and Rene L.
18 Valladares, Federal Public Defender, and Katherine Tanaka, Assistant Federal Public Defender,
19 counsel for Ryan Patrick Noe, respectfully request the Petitions for Revocation of Supervised
20 Release (ECF Nos. 5 and 26) be dismissed and the revocation hearing previously scheduled for

1           3.       On June 22, 2021, United States Probation filed a second petition for revocation
2 of supervised release based primarily on an alleged new law violation out of Henderson Justice
3 Court. ECF No. 26.

4           4.       On December 15, 2021, the parties appeared for the revocation of supervised

10 has since been dismissed.

11          6.       The parties agree the pending petitions for revocation of supervised release
12 should be dismissed, and that Mr. Noe should be continued on his current terms of supervision.

13          7.       United States Probation agrees with the proposed course of action.

14          8.       Mr. Noe does not object to this dismissal.
